THE CAPE COD BASEBALL LEAGUE IS ON MYFOXBOSTON.COM

BOSTON, MA – June 25th, 2007 – WFXT FOX25 will debut its complete coverage of the Cape Cod Baseball League games on www.myfoxboston.com beginning Monday June 25th, 2007. The station's website will follow all the action of Cape League match-ups with live streaming video and audio of the games.

"Summer visitors and Cape residents have enjoyed Cape Cod Baseball League games for years, and now anyone who can't attend the games or lives off-Cape can also follow the teams with FOX25's detailed coverage," said Gregg Kelley, Vice President and General Manager of WFXT FOX25.

Unique coverage features on myfoxboston.com will include game-day forecasts for each Cape League field from FOX25 meteorologists, alumni updates, league news and stats, league trivia and directions to the fields. Fans can also visit the site's online photo gallery or email their own fan and player photos to be posted on myfoxboston.com.

The 10-team Cape Cod Baseball League is known for attracting the best college baseball players in America and has a loyal following of fans that show up in the thousands at each game.

The FOX Television Stations group, one of the nation's largest owned-and-operated network broadcast groups, comprises 35 stations in 26 markets, covering nearly 45% of U.S. television homes. This includes six duopolies in the top 10 markets: New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Dallas, Washington, D.C. and Houston; as well as duopolies in Minneapolis, Phoenix and Orlando.
